Terms and Condition for Employees

We keep high esteem on our work and treat all of our employees equal* despite their cast, creed, ethnicity, political ideology , class and school of thoughts.

Salary:

We do not believe money as the major motivating factor for producing quality and efficiency in overall performance of the employee, neither do we treat money as limiting factor or valuable asset of company, not meant for sharing with employee. We demand all employee to ask for any amount of money they need as salary, our management will keep up with the exact figure any and every time. But the management have full right to shift decimal point towards left to suit company's policy.

Entertainment:

'All work and no play make ...” well to summarize we do not need lazy, lousy and workhorse inside our company, we give absolute freedom to our employees to do whatever they like and whenever they like inside the company and sex is no exception, the game of sex is rather encouraged inside the company premises and to encourage the game we have certain policy, one of which saves all your act on videotape so you can rejoice the moment later with millions of viewers over the internet, just don't forget to ask the url link with management. For those who define game and enjoyment otherwise, we will be looking forward to share next big internet/youtube phenomenon to the world.

Substance:

We all have studies chemistry somewhere on our study timeline, even our management team is reactive and can act as catalyst to enhance any situation inside office. We love various chemicals and drugs, we do not decommission or detain our employee on basis of drugs usages, just to include the fair warning, please note that drug is one major reason for crime around the world and we have all our branches in world, guy next to you may have 9mm or dagger on his pocket and using that against you in order to obtain drug means nothing to company beside early replacement of dead employee.

This document is produced and signed in consent to employee by our management team on behalf of both party **.

---

* Equality is defined by special mix of random and fuzzy function to all individual employee.

 If your signature is mistakenly impersonated by management, It's your fault and our lawyers are eager to sue you.